

LUDOVIC BOURCE

BIOGRAPHY

Ludovic Bource is an Academy Award-winning composer. His score for The Artist, recorded with the award-winning Brussels Philharmonic, elevated Bource to international fame and earned him numerous accolades, including an Academy Award, a Golden Globe Award, a Grammy Award, and a BAFTA Award. He is also known for his Emmy-nominated score for HBO's Larry David-directed film, Clear History.

Bource began his career composing music for commercials, but later moved on to short films, such as En attendant, Spartacus, and Sirene Song. After working on the Michel Hazanavicius film Mes amis, Bource has become a long-time collaborator with the director. He has since scored such Hazanavicius films as OSS 117: Cairo, Nest of Spies, its sequel OSS 117: Lost in Rio, and the acclaimed black-and-white silent film The Artist. He was invited to join the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences in June 2012 and was also named a Chevalier des Arts et Lettres by the French Government.
