

ZACH NICITA

BIOGRAPHY

Zach Nicita is a composer, producer, and multi-instrumentalist hailing from Los Angeles.

As a creative force in the music world, Zach has composed for numerous high-profile films and tv campaigns, produced Platinum® selling records, and has toured the world as a drummer playing major festivals and TV. From artist projects to television, film, and brand campaigns, he embraces each opportunity with the same enthusiasm to create something special.

Zach is the lead composer and creative director for the trailer music house Breakfast. Through his work with Breakfast, he continues to score a series of high-profile trailers for film and tv such as Moon Knight (Marvel), The Color Purple (prod. by Steven Spielberg and Oprah), The Witcher (Netflix), Morbius (Sony), and The Watcher (Netflix).

In addition to his extensive work in the film and tv trailer world, Zach has collaborated with artists such as Anne-Marie, Kid Cudi, Louis The Child, MS MR, H.E.R. and VÉRITÉ.

Zach's compositions can also be heard across various major brand campaigns for American Express, Google, Nintendo, Infiniti, Acura, Under Armour and Nationwide.

Zach's ability to seamlessly work within diverse musical contexts exemplifies his versatility and attention to detail as a composer. With a knack for creating captivating soundscapes, he leaves an indelible mark on every project he undertakes.
